

2014 PGAs of Europe International Team Championship

Hosted by Gloria Hotels & Resort

Gloria Golf Resort, Belek, Turkey
8 – 11 December 2014

Conditions of Entry

Eligibility

To be eligible to participate the players entered must be fully qualified members of the PGA who nominate their entry, and must actively be working for a minimum of 25 hours in a normal week within the golfing industry on a continuous basis. For clarification, working within the golfing industry is defined as working within the professional shop environment, teaching, administration, such as a Golf Director or activity of a similar nature.

Please note: This definition does not include full time playing professionals or non-qualified trainees/assistants.

For Countries with an Approved Training Programme:

A fully qualified member as recognised by The PGAs of Europe is a Professional who has taken, fully completed and passed a training or education programme approved by The PGAs of Europe.

For Countries WITHOUT an Approved Training Programme:

Where the National PGA that nominates the entry is not yet operating a fully approved Training Programme as per The PGAs of Europe regulations, a fully qualified member is a Professional who is recognised as a full member (not a full time playing professional or trainee/assistant) by that PGA.

If you have any doubts, please contact the PGAs of Europe office

In addition the following applies:

- Any professional who has competed in more than 4 European Tour events in any one season during either the 2013 or 2014 seasons by the closing date for entries will not be eligible for a period of two years.
